What will we do?

We're going to have fun seeing Nice together!

I can't wait to learn about you and, your life together, what you like to do, what your life is like back home (because I'm truly interested in YOU) and in Nice, you're my very special guests!

I'll be so happy show you my favorite spots in Nice, the hidden, cutest spots, and take the prettiest photos of you both

When we've completed our time together, I'll meticulously edit the beautiful images I've created for you in my signature emotive style, and create souvenirs for you to treasure forever, and ever!

Where will we go?

Our sessions in Nice, France include some of the most charming spots in this quaint seaside town, loaded with pretty color.

We'll visit the super cute old quarter of Nice (Vieux Nice), where we'll find colorful historic buildings (you'll feel a bit like you're in Italy!), and narrow little streets.

We'll also head to the sea, the beautiful blue Mediterranean, and we even have the possibility to visit the historic hill in Nice, the Colline du Château, with stupendous views over Nice & the Marina.

How does your nice photo session work?

We'll meet in central Nice, in Old Town (Vieux Nice) and will begin our walking tour around the Old Town. We'll pass by some really colorful buildings and meander around little, charming narrow streets. We'll stop in a square or two as well. Old Town is so gorgeous for romantic couples photos!

After our time in the old town, we'll head over to the hill in Nice, with an amazing view, called the Parc de la Colline du Chateau. Or, as we call it in English, Castle Hill. The light from the harbor side in the morning is pure magic. It is a bit of a workout to get to the top of the steps, but it's totally worth it (you don't have to take the steps if you don't want to, we can bypass this stop and go to the marina instead).

Finally, we'll stop at the beach, which does not have sand, but smooth, flat rocks, and grab a few beautiful photos with you and the Mediterranean in the background.

Then, we say goodbye! And I will miss you, because we'll have had so much fun!

Yes, you will have printing rights to the edited images you receive. You can also order prints through your gallery, a super easy process, and I guarantee the quality of prints ordered through the online gallery.

What if it rains?

Nice and the French Riviera are blessed with 300 days of sunshine a year, that said, it does rain from time to time. The best plan is to go forward with umbrellas, or we can reschedule to another time. Reschedules are based on the forecast for the 5 days prior and can not be accommodated last minute.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can we choose the time we want?

I only photograph clients in the morning because I want you to have the very best client experience. Nice is one of the most visited cities on the French Riviera, and the later the day gets, not only is the lighting not ideal, but there will be hundreds of tourists around, and it's not always pleasant. If you're not a morning person (I'm definitely not) it can be difficult getting up early, but it's totally worth it!

Do you provide makeup & hair services?

I do not supply makeup and hair services as part of your session, however, there are many talented makeup artists I can recommend. After you book, in your welcome PDF you'll receive links to great vendor resources, like makeup artists. You'd work with them and pay them directly.

What should I wear?

Nice is a casual and relaxing place, so you have a lot of options when it comes to your outfits. I'll send you tips on wardrobe in the welcome PDF you'll receive after booking

How do we get around?

We walk during our session, however, if you have mobility concerns, no worries, just let me know!

Will be be photographed constantly for 2 hours?

No, not at all, this is a photo session but walking tour around Nice as well. We'll be stopping and starting, walking around takes a bit of time, and you won't actually be photographed for a full two hours, that could get super tiring!

We guarantee you'll love the experience and we can't wait to show our family and friends our beautiful photos!
